What is the Set holdings if already held option used for in the Connexion Clients Batch update tool

Applies to

- Connexion Client

Answer

You can use that checkbox in the Batch Holdings by OCLC Number window to force Connexion client to run through the process to set the holding even if the title is already held. This would insure that the title was added to any Usage Statistics cataloging activity reports to avoid confusion in processing counts later on.