Why does the Searches Used -- Institution report show duplicate numbers for so many of the databases?

Applies to

- WorldCat Discovery
- OCLC Usage Statistics

Answer

The Advanced Search screen in Discovery allows patrons to select databases by group. This means that databases that are commonly selected together because they are in the same group and are rarely searched individually will have duplicate usage numbers.