Does the use of CatExpress qualify as contributing holdings to WorldCat, even though a library may not be providing all of their holdings to OCLC?

Last updated: Tue, 27 Oct 2020 13:36:43 GMT

Applies to

- WorldCat.org

Answer

Yes. Libraries that contribute holdings to WorldCat through CatExpress, even if this represents less than 100 percent of their cataloging activity, will see their holdings display on WorldCat.org, as long as they also maintain a FirstSearch/WorldCat Discovery subscription.